

LOVE FOR ALL

FOSTER CARE AND ADOPTION 101 INFORMATION SESSION

Are you interested in foster care or adoption? Join the YMCA of Metropolitan Fort Worth and the Heart Gallery of North Texas as they co-host an informational session outlining details of adoption and foster care.

Meet with a representative from a child placing agency based in North Texas and learn about what is needed to become a foster or adoptive family while having the opportunity to get your questions answered and help a child find them a forever home.

WHEN: Saturday, October 19th

TIME: 10:30 a.m.

WHERE: Amon G. Carter YMCA
512 Lamar St.
Fort Worth, TX 76102

This is a free event, but an RSVP is preferred.

Please scan the QR code below, or visit:
<https://forms.office.com/r/wEfrYvnXSL>

Did you know when adopted:

- Adoptive parents assume all custodial right of the child they adopt
- Post adoption resources and benefits are provided to families that finalize their adoption
- College tuition is offered to children adopted through the state foster care system
- Adoptions completed through foster care are federally funded, requiring no fees for the family

 Adoptions
By: HEART GALLERY OF NORTH TEXAS

For More Information: 817-839-4569
presented by:  GLADNEY Center for Adoption

The Heart Gallery of North Texas works with the community to help children of the community find forever and loving families.